DOMESTIC STEAM LAUNDRY.

GOT WIFE BY MAIL

P. C. CHRISTENSEN, OF LEXINGTON, IS MARRIED

Widow Courtied by Mail Arrived in Pendleton and Became His Bride—Correspondence of Over a Year Resulted in a Match—Sherman and Morrow County Bachelors Importing their Wives from the East—Mr. Christensen and Bride are Both Delighted with the Choice Made at Long Range.

Sherman and Morrow county bachelors are importing wives from the east, because of the scarcity of marriageable girls in the short grass counties of Oregon.

Yesterday P. C. Christensen, of Lexington, a prosperous bachelor of 43, was married in this city to Mrs. Nettie Bailey, of Norfolk, Va., whom he had courted and won by mail.

Mr. Christensen was introduced to Mrs. Bailey by Mrs. Charles Barnett, of this city, some months ago, through correspondence. Both Mr. Christensen and Mrs. Bailey were matrimonially inclined.

The correspondence waxed fervent, the proposal was flashed across the continent, the acceptance was flashed back, the date was fixed, the prosperous bachelor sent a ticket to his affianced, and the romantic story reached a happy climax when Rev. Robert Warner, of the M. E. church, performed the wedding ceremony Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Barnett.

Within the past few years twelve bachelors of Sherman and Morrow counties have imported wives from the crowded eastern states, where good single men are scarce and estimable widows and marriageable girls are plentiful.

It is not recorded whether Mr. Christensen searched the Morrow county foothills thoroughly before sending east for a wife, but, at any rate, he now has a wife in his lonely home, and both Mr. and Mrs. Christensen are supremely satisfied with the bargain made at long range.

It required about a year's courtship to convince both parties that they were intended for each other. It is almost 3,000 miles from Lexington, Oregon, to Norfolk, Virginia, but love knows neither distance nor difficulty in its restless growth, and when the bride and groom met in Pendleton and gazed upon each other for the first time, both were happy in the choice they had made and there was no delay in the wedding arrangements.

Mrs. Bailey goes to be the happy mistress of a good home, as Mr. Christensen is a well-to-do farmer, owning a large tract of land in Morrow county, near Lexington, and is an industrious, frugal man. He is more delighted than he can well express at the result of his courtship by mail.

CHITTIM BARK SOLD.

Carload of 20,000 Pounds Sold at 2½ Cents Per Pound.

A carload of chittim bark of 20,000 pounds was shipped East by Boggs & Co., Monday, having been sold to patent medicine manufacturers at 4½ cent per pound, says the Salem Journal. This is considered cheap for chittim bark, as it has been as high as 18 cents within the past few years.

Chittim bark, however, is becoming scarcer on the coast, owing to the fact that peeling the bark kills the trees, and that very few trees have been set out to meet the deficiency.

Some farmers have set branches out on the hillside which are not fitted for pasture or for plowing, but the area of such planting is considered very small. Some dealers think chittim bark will be worth $1 a pound within the next five years.

Most of the patent medicines made for stomach, liver and kidney trouble contain diluted essence of chittim bark, and the only part of the country where this bark is found in good supply is west of the Cascade range of mountains.

Late Arrival from Wisconsin.

W. M. Edwards, who lately arrived from Martin county, Wisconsin, with his family, is employed in a lumber yard in this place. He will remain here until next spring, having the country on trial. He is much pleased so far, however, and at this juncture expects to buy realty next spring. He is a brother of the Edwards brothers, sheepmen, of Pilot Rock. His son, F. M. Edwards, came to Umatilla county last spring and has been employed on the Edwards brothers' ranch since that time.

Election in Newfoundland.

St. John's, N. F., Oct. 31.—Newfoundland is holding a general election today, and the result is awaited with keen interest in all circles. One of the main issues involved in the contest is the question of confederation with the Dominion. Owing to the present prosperity throughout the province, it is generally predicted that the government party, headed by Premier Bond, will be returned by a substantial majority. There are two opposing organizations in the field one headed by ex-Premier Whiteway, and the other by ex-Premier Goodridge.

Cotton Mill Resumes.

Augusta, Me., Oct. 31.—The cotton mill of the Edwards Manufacturing company, which has been closed since first of July on account of the condition of the cotton market, resumed operations today under a 10 per cent. reduction in the wage scale. The mill affords work to about 1200 employees.

Owing to the long distance traveled by stage and rail from Lake county to Salem, the cost of bringing a prisoner to the penitentiary is $221.
